CARTER REPORTS ON FLEET ACCOUNTS

Hose and Swab Plied On Big Ships Today

The Washington came in this morning from the stream and lay alongside the collier Justin at the Oceanic wharf to coal. Meanwhile, it is cleaning-day with the others. Scrub-brush, hose, and much manual labor is being expended in taking away the grimy traces of the work which was done yesterday in putting coal into the bunkers. The decks are all washed, and the sounds of splashing water and of swabs come up from below.

The slide boys run about with their trousers rolled to their knees, everybody profiting by the opportunities for cleaning up their persons in some way as well as the ship. Until the process is over, no one will go ashore from the big cruisers on leave.

Shore Leave Today

But, with the men working like Trojans to get through their work in time to come ashore today, it is just possible that the first of the detachments which will be turned loose for a good time will go out late this afternoon or some time this evening. Tomorrow, they will certainly be ashore in troops, and with pay in their pockets.

Last evening, quite a number of men were ashore from the destroyers. The coaling on these is soon through for any one vessel, and the men on the lucky boats had leave.

So the sailor patrols, like those employed by the Atlantic Fleet, were ashore, and out on the streets, looking after the peace, which must be kept, and for sailor boys who need direction in getting back to their ships.

Visitors Allowed on Board

Visitors are to be received on board the cruisers, in the majority of cases at least, after coaling is through with it, it is understood. This will be tomorrow on most of the ships.

Land in Waialua is valued at $2,000 and in Kona, Hawaii, at $500. The largest individual holding of Mr. Low was 4000 shares of Honolulu Plantation Company, worth $80,000, the control of which is on the Coast.

Garden Party Today

Honolulu society ladies will act as the hostesses at a garden party at the Moana this afternoon which will be given to the officers of the Pacific Fleet. The affair is invitational and promises to outline anything in the entertainment line that will be done for the officers during their stay here this trip. Mrs. Walter F. Frear, wife of the Governor, is the chairwoman of the committee, and she is assisted by Mrs. Humphreys and the ladies of the Woman's Auxiliary Fleet Entertainment Committee. The party will last from 4 until 7.

ADMINISTRATOR FOR BIG ESTATE

James Alfred Low Was Worth Sum Of $104,160

A. G. M. Robertson, appearing as attorney for Mrs. Lillie B. Matson, has filed a petition in the Circuit Court, asking that letters of administration be issued in the estate of the late James Alfred Low, who passed away in Vladivostok last January.

The estate valuation is given at $104,160, which amount seems to generally exceed considerably the amount of money accredited to Mr. Low before his death.

Land in Waialua is valued at $2,000 and in Kona, Hawaii, at $500. The largest individual holding of Mr. Low was 4000 shares of Honolulu Plantation Company, worth $80,000, the control of which is on the Coast.

COMMITTEE TO TALK PLANS WITH ADMIRAL

Will Meet Swinburne Tomorrow and Talk
Entertainment

A meeting of the Pacific Fleet Committee was held this afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce rooms, at 1:30 o'clock.

Van Valkenberg asked for an appropriation to cover the Waiawa trip, amounting to $150 to cover the two days, to be placed at the disposal of the Transportation Committee.

Jas. F. Morgan of the Transportation Committee had no report.

Admiral Swinburne will meet the committee on the Naval dock at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning, to discuss and make plans for the entertainment of the Fleet during September and October stays. With this meeting with the Admiral in view, the committee adjourned until the time and place mentioned above.

Walter Webber, assistant foreman of the government printing office at Manila is a passenger in the transport Thomas. Mr. Webber is a Denver man and found an old acquaintance in B. C. Stearns of the Bulletin job office force.

Accounts Correct; Committee Adjourns

"Every rumor and every statement which affects the work which has been done by this Atlantic Fleet Committee has been investigated, and there is nothing now left that requires any straightening out at all, as every voucher is in and everything in order." This is a part of the statement made by Chairman Carter of the Atlantic Fleet Committee, at a meeting held this afternoon at 1:35 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce rooms for the purpose of presenting the auditor's report and closing business.

When the meeting opened, Mr. Carter asked George W. Smith, as the vice chairman, to take the Chair.

GEO. C. POTTER.

Mr. Carter then went on to explain the purpose of the call of the meeting.

He explained that in the case of one paper circulated, and funds used by the Transportation Committee, it had been rumored that there was a difference between funds collected and the amounts the central committee had received. He stated that he had looked into the matter exhaustively, and it had been dealt with in the auditing, and everything had been accounted for.

"It has also been stated that the Press Committee had a balance yet on hand," said Mr. Carter. "I called upon the chairman, and found this to be a false rumor, because the chairman had a statement to give and vouchers showing the full proceeds of the amount he had drawn."

"I think the widest publicity should be given this statement. 'Every rumor and every statement which affects the work which has been done by this Atlantic Fleet Committee has been investigated and there is nothing now left which requires any straightening out at all, as every voucher is in, and everything in order.'"

BUNGALOW TO BE TORN DOWN EIGHTH PRECINCT AND ITS EXPENSES

Historic Old Building

Condition
Protest Before Territorial
Executive Disallowed
This Moon

If a certain recommendation of Superintendent of Public Works Marion Campbell, in his report to Governor Frear, is carried out, the famous old Bungalow in the Palace grounds will be torn down and removed. Campbell states that it is very old, the wood is decayed, and is in general bad shape, consequently making it, instead of a useful adjunct to the Territorial buildings, a bother and an eyesore in the grounds. In tearing this down, it will be following out the policy of unity and conformity in public buildings that has been set under the present administration.

Republicans of the Eighth Precinct of the Fifth District were before the Republican Territorial Committee this noon for an interpretation of the party rules on assessing candidates for primary election expenses. The protesters failed to make their point stick, but they may get their names on the ballots if they disgorge the necessary $2 or thereabouts before the official ballot is printed.

It seems that in the Eighth Precinct meeting, a motion was passed that each candidate for delegate to the Territorial and County convention should
